The October Salon

October Art Salon is a representative event featuring actual tendencies in the domain of visual arts, founded under the auspices of the City of Belgrade. It was established in 1960 as an exhibition of the best works in the sphere of fine arts. In 1967 it became an important review of the current trends in applied arts, too. The Council of the Salon makes decisions on its concept and is consisting of renowned experts in the sphere of visual arts (art historians, art critics and artists), appointed by the City of Belgrade. Until 2006, the October Salon has been an event presenting solely the art scene of Serbia. Wishing to establish a fuller dialogue between the October Art Salon and the international art scene, the City of Belgrade and the Council have decided that the future Salons should be international in character.

Belgrade International Theatre festival – BITEF

Founded in 1967, Bitef has continually followed and supported the latest theatre trends, becoming thus one of the biggest and the most important European festivals. Transcending all political and cultural borders, in more than four decades Bitef has managed to keep its pace with a tumultuous evolution of performing arts. Thus, one could identify the history of Bitef as a history of contemporary theatre. Bitef presents experimental theatre productions as well as high quality traditional form productions. In the first decade of the 21st century, Bitef presents the original and innovative productions of the world mainstream theatre, the performances of post-dramatic, non-verbal expression, as well as those realized with new technologies. For its continuity and quality Bitef was awarded the Special Prize for 1999 by "Premio Europa per il teatro".

Women's Race

In September will be organised another edition of Belgrade's "most beautiful" event at Ada Ciganlija – the Women's Race. The race is simultaneously recreational and elite athletic race around the lake dedicated exclusively to members of the fairer sex. Last year, over 3.500 girls and women took part in the race. Alongside lovely participants' T-shirts, after they have finished (running or walking) 77 km – all participants receive a flower, participant's diploma and special gift courtesy of organisers and sponsors. We always stage live music programme with top performers and a raffie for all the participants and guests. As far as the sports programme is concerned, the race has an international character, and the fastest three participants receive valuable money prizes. The Women's Race, by the way, is the only Belgrade's mass, not only sports, event dedicated exclusively to women.

Joy of Europe

The largest children's festival in the country is "Joy of Europe", which has been gathering children from all over Europe for 42 years. Each year, at the beginning of October, young citizens of Belgrade and their families are hosts to several hundred of their peers from all over Europe – children who bring with them the sounds, movements, impressions and customs of their countries as well as numerous skills which, during the five days of the programme, they demonstrate on the squares and streets of Belgrade and in its halls. The grand final concert in the Sava Centre is seen by several thousand children in the hall itself, as well as the several million viewers of the live television transmission.

From 1997 children from all over the world have been invited to take part in the "Joy of Europe" painting competition, the theme of which is always "A Dictionary of Friendship". A panel of experts chooses the best of these and awards medals to their authors, and during the festival an exhibition of the best works is held. Each year between 5 and 10 thousand children's paintings arrive in Belgrade.

Belgrade Fashion week – Autumn

The Belgrade Fashion Week, one of the city's premier events, is organized twice a year (end of October and middle of April). It was established as the first Fashion Week in Eastern Europe with the most important Serbian designers and fashion companies, attractive foreign brands and international fashion designers as key participants. Belgrade Fashion Week features domestic designers presenting their collections, while young talents have a fair chance to make first steps into the real world of fashion and to present their exquisite garments to broad fashion public. Belgrade Fashion Week has a strong tendency to become a key fashion center of the region, while at the same time becoming more and more equal partner with similar events in the world and it has become since 2008 a member of the Global Fashion Association, the most relevant Fashion Week associations in the world, with headquarters in New York.

Belgrade Music Festival – BEMUS

Founded in 1969, the Belgrade Music Festival – BEMUS is the oldest and the most prominent music festival in Serbia and one of the most distinctive classical music festivals in the South-Eastern Europe. Enjoying the position of a cultural event of special importance for the City of Belgrade, BEMUS has been member of the European Festivals Association (EFA) since 2002. Although special attention has always been devoted to the promotion of local artists and their creativity, BEMUS has established its reputation mostly presenting the most attractive international programmes. Thanks to BEMUS, only over the last several years, Belgrade has hosted some of the most prominent ensembles and soloists of our time – Concertgebouw Orchestra, Gothenburg Symphony Orchestra, Budapest Festival Orchestra, Frankfurt Radio Symphony Orchestra, Munich Philharmonic, Chœur de Chambre de Namur, RAI Torino, New York Philharmonic, as well as Gidon Kremer & Kremerata Baltica, Camerata Salzburg, Il Giardino Armonico, Les Percussions de Strasbourg, Peking Opera, Kronos Quartet, Béjart Ballet, Eftmar Ballet, Martha Argerich, Zubin Mehta, Nelson Freire, Melvin Tan, Stephen Kovacevich, Hakan H. Idringberg, Jean-Yves Thibaudet, Mischa Maslaj, Elisabeth Leonskaya, Maksim Vengerov, Julian Rachlin, Renaud Capuçon, Leonidas Kavakos... Apart from the well established performers, BEMUS opens its venues to young musicians who are ready to launch their professional careers. Equal attention is committed to exclusive contemporary music and stage productions (opera, ballets and multimedia projects) which often reach for alternative artistic achievements. Many of these projects are produced or co-produced by BEMUS.
